Southern Arizona Mounted Search and Rescue, INC. (SAMSAR), is an all Volunteer Organization and we are seeking community Leaders to sponsor area first responders to attend a specialized technical rescue class coming to Tucson this spring, March 24, 25 & 26. There will be a one day classroom instruction and a 2 day hands on that teaches the students technical rescue concepts unique to large animal incidents including scene management, rescue, capture, recover, and specialized equipment techniques. It covers trailer vehicle incidents, trail riding incidents, and stable incidents. The class is designed for first responding agency personnel keeping themselves and the animals involved safe during an incident extraction. The course curriculum is well established and approved as a California State Fire Marshall Technical Rescue Fire Course. It has been offered to Arizona first responders since 2008. This class will be held at the S.A.R.A building : 5900 N. Sabino Canyon Rd.

Sponsors can make a TAX DEDUCTIBLE DONATION to Southern Arizona Mounted Search and Rescue via check sent to the address above, or contact Colleen Leon 520-990-7499 for any Visa Credit Card donations.

The 3 day class cost is $375.00 per person. Sponsors can either delegate an agency or person they would like to sponsor or leave it up to the Host party, SAMSAR, to determine the highest priority responding agency to get the most coverage of trained individuals in the class.

_____ Yes, I will sponsor _____ seats in the basic session for $375.00/seat.

Any and all donations accepted. Southern Arizona Mounted Search and Rescue is a recognized 501C3 charitable organization our number is 27-4296883. To thank sponsors, (we will include promotional material in the instruction booklet), highlight your sponsorship on our webpage and Facebook fan page, and will post any promotional material you might supply in the classroom. Please help us ensure the highest quality of large animal rescue here in the Tucson community

SAMSAR and the Tucson Equine community thanks you in advance for your donation!
